Dear Parents,

I’m sure that everyone would have enjoyed the “Ekka” break. As many would be aware and as often seems to happen over the “breaks”, our staff and students were engaged in activities. This time the FCIP music students were representing the College in the Catholic Schools Music Festival held at Villanova College. The various bands, ensembles and choirs performed very well and there were quite a number of gold and silver awards achieved. A more detailed report is included in the Bulletin. Congratulations to all the music teachers and the students on the dedication, hard work and performances.

Prior to Exhibition Week, Padua College held its Academic Awards Ceremony. It was extremely pleasing to recognize the academic achievements of so many students. Despite the hype of media exploitation of NAPLAN results and “league” tables, it is clear that there are many students who not only achieve but achieve very well.

In the course of the assembly, the students were addressed by Dr Mark Shillington, who is a wonderful example of what can be achieved academically. Mark was a Senior at Padua in 1997. He spoke to the students fondly of his time at Padua. He spoke of his gratitude for good and firm friends who have stayed his life’s journey with him. He spoke of the many and varied opportunities that were given to him at Padua. He also spoke of his appreciation for the guidance, understanding and expertise of the staff. Modestly, Mark did not speak of his achievements, except to say he had worked and studied hard to be a doctor and had three years left of training to be an orthopedic surgeon.

The students were impressed to hear that in 1997, Mark was an OP1 student, the College Captain, Captain of the First XV (undefeated), Captain of First XIII (undefeated), a Queensland Schoolboy in Rugby League and played for the South East Queensland Crushers Colts side. I was also at pains to point out to the students that Mark chose an academic, medical career over an NRL career. A list of the award winners is contained in the Bulletin. Congratulations to them on their hard work and achievement.

Parents would also be aware that the House Carnival was contested on the Monday prior to the break. This was a wonderful, whole school event that displayed spirit, enthusiasm and participation. Congratulations to Mitchell House in the Primary and Odoric in the Secondary and overall.

Finally, the Senior students began their “rites of passage” journey for the end of the year with their Senior Formal. It was a tremendous evening celebrated with the appropriate decorum of a formal occasion. My congratulations to the senior students and their partners.

The celebration of the formal is an indication that the year is rapidly drawing to a close. There is still much to do and the students will need your assistance to remain focused on what is important. Thank you for your assistance in this important aspect of your son’s life.

FROM PASTORAL CARE TEAM

On behalf of the Pastoral team I would like to welcome everyone back after the Exhibition break. With only 4 weeks left in the term, there is no doubt that your sons are likely to be busy. Good luck to all students with the QCS test, Year 11 Camp and subject exams during this time.

Last week, the College Athletics carnival was held at the Banyo playing fields. Congratulations to Mitchell House who were primary school champions on the day and to Odoric House who won both the secondary and whole school trophies.

The following is a distinctly Odoric take on the day by Ms Aimee Asimus, House Guardian of Odoric House and Sam Foster, College Captain, also a member of Odoric House.

Athletics Carnival – Odoric House Guardian

It seems that the Odoric boys are unstoppable this year. Under the guidance and leadership of their house captains, Sherman Leung, and Sam Duffy, the boys sprinted, leapt and jumped their way to victory at the athletics carnival. It was an exciting day with many school records and personal best times being broken. I congratulate all the boys from Years 5 – 12 on a wonderful day. Your behaviour, attendance, participation and house spirit were commendable.

Athletics Carnival – College Captain and Odoric House member

The athletics carnival is always a much anticipated event for all of the boys in the primary and secondary and 2010 proved to be no different. Everyone partook in events ranging from the tug of war to the 80m sprint. Despite Beirne House’s early points lead, the mighty Odoric House were to strong on the day. I was most impressed with the spirit, sportsmanship and camaraderie of all the boys and it was fantastic to see the primary and secondary competing together.

Excelling Grigg House Students

Nicholas Murray recently competed in the Oceania Titles in Sydney in Judo in the under 16- 55kg weight category. Nicholas had a sensational tournament finishing 2nd place in a very close bout. Nicholas has decided to enter another tournament this weekend to gain more points to earn the right to go the World Titles. Best of luck Nicholas from Grigg House and all of Padua College.

Lucas Brankovich (Year 10) recently competed for Qld in the 2010 Australian Artistic Gymnastics. His team won the QLD level 7 Open Division, a sensational result. Lucas placed 5th individually in Australia with a 2nd placing on the Rings, a 2nd placing on the Parallel Bars and 9th on the High Bar. Well done Lucas on a fine effort.

I am sure we will be hearing more about these boys sporting endeavors in the future.

Vice Rector Pastoral Care
The Australian Catholic Bishops seem especially excited as they look forward to the publication of a new Roman Missal. But there is some evidence that all is not going well.

Firstly, there has been criticism of the procedure and process of these new translations.

The principle of subsidiarity has been ignored as there has been little consultation of priests, congregations and Bishops. After the Bishops have (and some most reluctantly) voted on the text, now extensive changes are being made in Rome to these same texts.

Secondly, there has been widespread criticism of the new texts. The claim is that the sentence structure, while a faithful translation of the Latin, is in English both cumbersome and complicated, with long and rambling sentences. Further, the use of exclusive language is insensitive to more than half our congregations, and in the Australian context where many at Mass have English as their second language, the use of phrases like “consubstantial with the Father”, “incarnate of the Virgin Mary”, “oblation of our service” will leave such people none the wiser.

A fast growing response to all of this began with the publication of an article by Michael G. Ryan entitled, “What If We Said, ‘Wait’?” (AMERICA: THE NATIONAL CATHOLIC WEEKLY, December 14, 2009). Ten of thousands of Catholics have signed on to its website www.whatiferjustsaidwait.org asking the Bishops of the English-speaking world to slow down the implementation of the new Roman Missal, calling for a period of testing and evaluation of the new translations. I have signed on, maybe you would like to as well!

Padua Sleepover for Homelessness
On Thursday 30 July 40 students from Years 9 to 12 slept out 'under the stars' as an experience of homelessness. They were participating in this year's St Vincent de Paul's School Sleepover event. The night began with a discussion on homelessness led by the Lady Mayoress of Brisbane, Mrs Lisa Newman which was followed by input from The State Youth Coordinator of St Vincent de Paul, Ms Cassandra Bull and our own Mr David Cox, a member of our local St Vincent de Paul Kedron Conference. Following a hearty minestrone soup dinner prepared by Mrs Gatt, the boys took some time out for homework and study. Before dosing down time was given to prepare some kind of shelter out of cardboard donated by our local Big W store at Stafford. Boys were woken again at around 6 am which is much like what happens to people living on the street because they get moved on from their shelters quite early by workers and general morning activity. Many thanks to Mrs Gatt, Mr Duffy, Mr David Cox and Mr Peter Sorensen (from our local St Vinnies Conference who also slept out with the boys!) and the many staff who dropped in for a while during the night. Forty blankets were also donated to St Vinnies from the participating boys and their families to supplement their stocks for winter.

Two Can Day
Thank you Padua for your generosity once again for this event. The local Kedron conference of St Vincent de Paul's pantry is now full for a few months. This enables them to supply the emergency food needs of our local area. Mr Cox told participants at our recent Sleepover for Homelessness that the need for their services exists as close as two blocks away from our school! Two Can Day was part of Padua's celebration of Catholic Education Week in 2010.

Inaugural Franciscan Italy Pilgrimage
In just under six weeks the first group of Paduans to travel to Italy and follow in the footsteps of St Francis will begin. The group of sixteen leaves Brisbane airport for Rome on Tuesday 28 September and returns very early in the morning of 13 October. We will be visiting Rome, Rieti, Assisi, Florence, Padua and Venice during our 14 days away. A highlight of the trip will be staying in Assisi for the Feast Day of St Francis on 4 October. Fr John will say mass for us in one of the chapels in St Peter's Basilica and in two important Franciscan sanctuaries in Assisi. This is a huge day in the small Umbrian town when it feels like all of Italy has descended on the place! A daily blog on Sharepoint will keep everyone up to date on our travels.

Vivid Youth Rally (see flyer)
Padua is hosting the next Vivid Youth Rally here on Saturday 21 August from 5.00 pm to 8.30 pm. It is free to come but all participants must register on line. Registration details are http://vividwydlaunch.eventbrite.com. It would be great to see a few Paduans there! This rally also marks the one year run up to WYD Madrid 2011 which promises to be a huge event for young Catholics world wide.
