Dear Parents

The semester has come and gone quite rapidly. We can now look forward to a restful holiday. However, as in most holidays, there is still some school activity. The annual Confraternity Rugby League competition is being held in Yeppoon. Padua was an inaugural competitor in 1980 and at least one team has been present in all years bar 1995. I know the boys and the staff are looking forward to the carnival and we wish them well for a successful and injury-free week.

The talk of Padua is of course, the inaugural AIC First XV Premiership, which is shared with Marist Ashgrove and St Edmunds. Congratulations to the Frist XV squad and Mr Lowrie and Mr Maguire. It has been a great season for them and the less I say about the officiating in the last game against Marist the better. In the excitement of the success, we should not forget the U14B Premiership. Congratulations to the boys and the coach Mr Raadschelders on a great season. I would like to give special mention to the U15A Rugby side and Mr Sean Graham, from Padua Primary. I have followed their fortunes closely this year and I believe they have improved out of sight. Thanks to all of them for this effort. I believe they will make a great contribution to the Open ranks next year.

Term two sport has been quite successful across the board in Football, Rugby and Chess. It was great to see the parent support of all teams. Many thanks to the parents, and staff, who helped provide hospitality to other schools—especially Mr Barry Keegan, Mrs Marion Fuller and Mrs Lindsay Hawthorne.

With the end of Semester comes reports. These will be sent home next week along with instructions for booking parent/teacher interviews on Sharepoint. The parent/teacher interviews for Years 5-12 will be held on Monday 11 July from 12.30-7.30pm. This is a student free day. Further interviews will be held from 3.30-6.30pm on Wednesday 13 July for Years 8-12. I would urge any parent, who has concerns about their son’s progress, to make an appointment to see the relevant teacher.

Also being sent home with reports will be the opportunity to advertise in the FOTH Business Directory. If you have a business or service you wish to advertise to our FOTH Community, please send back the form. It is an opportunity, which is mutually beneficial.

I believe we have had a successful first half to 2011. Thank you for your contributions to and support of our community. Enjoy the break!

Pace e bene

The Priests' Council of the Archdiocese and the Executive of Brisbane Catholic Education are revising the document "The Pastor and the Parish School."

Basically these bodies are acknowledging the changing relationship between Parish Schools and Parish Priests.

Belonging to a faith community has certainly changed in the past twenty or thirty years. For many the local worshipping community appears to offer limited relevance.

Whereas once local parishes were almost tribal gathering sites which offered a variety of social services, and community building opportunities (tennis clubs, CYO youth clubs and dances) most parishes today have virtually just become worshipping centres.

Once too the local Catholic school was an integral part of the Parish; the children of the Parish school were members of the local parish the school was supported and in part financially sustained by the parish- and overseen by the Parish Priest.

But how things have changed!

Some parishes don't have a parish school, some newly amalgamated parishes have a number of parish schools, and the average percentage of non-catholics in Queensland catholic schools is 32%.

At least locally there have been significant changes in the clientele of the three catholic schools at Kedron. I can only cite from Padua College's statistics.

Padua College has 1078 boys from 71 different suburbs!! Some 10% of these boys come equally from either Kedron or Albany Creek.

Of the 48 boys this year who came into Grade 5 from St. Anthony's School- they came from 16 different parishes, and only 10% live in Kedron. Remember too that 12% of Padua's population is not Catholic.

When you look at these figures you see a very loose connection between the local parish of Kedron and those enrolled at Padua.

For many it is the Catholic school they are attending that has become the faith community for those girls and boys enrolled in our schools. This makes the Religious Education programs and our liturgical celebrations like the Eucharist so important for our students - because it may be the only experience they ever have of church and a faith community.

Blanket Appeal Thank you
A huge thanks for your support for my one-off blanket appeal this week. I noticed the need when out on Rosies Van recently and your response has been overwhelming (two station wagon loads!). As well as leftover pastries, pies and bread from Mum’s Bakehouse I have been able to take out much needed blankets, doonas, beanies and home made toiletries packs to people living rough on the street.

Toiletries Kits
Please take a look at the flyer for this in this week’s bulletin. For those who travel and collect those small bottles of shampoo etc, spare face washers, toothbrushes & toothpaste (can you ask your dentist/orthodontist at your next visit), small soaps and packets of tissues. The picture in the flyer gives you an idea. Thank you to the Knight family for making up a batch to take out this week when we go.

Padua Winter Sleep Out & Two Can Day
As the night’s get colder we appreciate more and more the fact that we can have hot nourishing meals and a warm bed in which to sleep. Once again, Padua is staging its Winter Sleepout in conjunction with St Vincent de Paul. Boys are invited to spend a night sleeping rough simulating conditions of the homeless. Participants are asked to provide a hospital grade blanket as ‘entry’ to the event. These will be donated to St Vinnie’s on the night. The next day, and in conjunction with Catholic Education Week’s ‘Act of Kindness’ Day, we will hold our Two Can Day and Casual Dress Day.

Beirne and Grigg House Eucharists
Please note the dates for your House Eucharists – particularly the Beirne Eucharist which has been changed, Letters will be sent home and returns are required by the respective House Guardians prior to the events. All students are expected to attend. Supper follows each of these Eucharists.

Year 9 Spirit Days
Returns for these events are now due. Please ensure your son brings in his return for these important days. They are both held off campus and students may wear casual dress on the day. Please note which days require lunch to be taken.

Archbishop’ Pastoral Letter to Young People
Enclosed in this bulletin is the latest pastoral message from the Archbishop. I encourage you all to take a moment to read it and reflect upon the archbishop’s message to the young people under our care.

Franciscan Social Justice Day
On Friday 5 August some Yr 10 and 11 students will be chosen to attend a combined Franciscan Social Justice Day. There will be discussion, workshops and something creative coming out of the day. More details to come.

Michael O’Brien
Whooping Cough

The College was this week notified of an isolated case of Whooping cough. Should your son show any signs or symptoms of Whooping cough, please see your family doctor for further advice.

St Anthony’s Visits

Once a week for the duration of Term 2, the Senior leaders have been visiting St. Anthony’s primary school to run activities and play with the younger students. This has been a very rewarding experience for both groups of students.

With the Year 12’s on exam block, 12 Year 10 students took the opportunity to fill the shoes of the Seniors and interact with the Prep students on the Feast of St Anthony. By all accounts the students did a fantastic job and participated in true Franciscan spirit. Photo’s of their day can be seen below.

Hair and Uniform

As is customary at Padua, all students returning from holidays will have their hair and uniform inspected by their House Guardian to ensure they meet the expectations of the College. I would ask all parents to please support this process and ensure all students are able to get their hair cut and uniform altered where required, in preparation for Term 3. I have included a list of these expectations below to assist with this process:

All students return to school in their winter uniform. This consists of;

Year 8 and 9: Black (polished) leather shoes, College socks (worn up), grey College shorts, College black leather belt, short sleeve College shirt, College tie and College hat.

Year 10-12: Black (polished) leather shoes, grey College slacks, black or grey dress socks, College black leather belt, short or long sleeve College shirt, College tie, College Blazer and College hat.

In addition -

All students adhere to the College hair policy. The College hair policy states that students must ensure that their hair;

Does not touch the eyebrows when the fringe is combed forward

Does not touch the collar when combed back

Does not pass mid temple when swept forward at the side

Is of a consistent length and natural colour

Is worn in a neat and tidy fashion and is not cut in an attention seeking manner

Student Of The Week:

This week’s students of the week are;

Beirne: Jai Olsen

Grigg: Nicholas Murray – 2nd Place at the Judo National Titles

Mitchell: Charlie Syvret for returning lost property (including money) to the office

Odoric: Mitchell Caufield for running the Padua Dash even though he was extremely ill!

Grigg News

Well the sporting achievements keep rolling out in the Grigg House of late. Bart Ritchie, Jack and Joe O’Toole have all made the AIC 2 Rugby representative side after a stellar season in the First XV Premiership winning squad. Nick Murray in Year 12 continued his excellent run in the National Judo championships a few weeks ago in Perth coming a valiant 2nd in his age and weight category. Well done to these fine young men of Grigg. I am sure there are many more great sporting achievements out there in the Grigg House that are worthy of mention. Please let me know of any such achievements (not just sporting), I would love the opportunity to make mention of it at our weekly assemblies and give your young man a pat on the back.

In regards to Grigg House Old Boys, it was great to run into the Travers family recently whilst out to dinner. They were farewelling their oldest son Joshua, who graduated in 2008. Josh has recently been involved in writing an album here in Brisbane and Sony liked one of Josh’s songs so much they have taken him to New York to write some more songs possibly. Well done Josh, hopefully we will be hearing some even bigger news from the US in the near future, we all wish you all the success in the world. If you hear of any upcoming songs of Josh’s, get out there and buy it and support him.

Readers Cup Competition

On Tuesday last week, a group of Year 8s competed in the CBCA Brisbane North Region Readers Cup Competition. They read five books over a period of about seven weeks. The boys then answered eight questions about each book on the night at Brisbane Grammar School. The titles were:

- Noah’s Law by Randa Abdel-Fattah
- Noughts & Crosses by Marjorie Blackman
- The Parfizz Pitch by Kate Hunter
- I am Number Four by Pittacus Lore
- American Born Chinese by Gene Luen Yang

There were 13 other schools who participated and the competition was very tight, with the top school changing almost every round. But the Padua boys were always in with a chance, and when there was a tie for second and third, between All Hallows and Clayfield College, we could sense that it might be ours.

It was! Padua blitzed the final round to score 20 points for The Parfizz Pitch. I congratulate the boys on their achievement. This whole night was a terrific success, with the addition of Kate Hunter, author of The Parfizz Pitch, as the quizmaster. The boys were able to get our copies of the books signed, and were awarded their trophies and certificates and I have included a photo of the boys with Kate.

The members of the team are:

- Jack Dickson
- Tom Fall
- Michael Hinds
- Niall Stone

They were ably supported by Joseph Davissen who, as reserve, read all the books too, as well as attended all the meetings. Unfortunately on the night, Joe was sick and was unable to be there, but we appreciated all that he did in the lead up to the competition.

The boys now move into the next phase, which will see them competing against 13 other schools across the state on September 7th. They will begin the task of reading five new texts over the holidays. I am aware that these boys are also in debating teams, or are part of AIC sports teams, so I am very impressed and encouraged by their passion for reading.

The Environment Club was invited to participate in the Brisbane City Council May Fair at Lanham Park, Grange on Saturday 14th May. The fair was coordinated by a number of local government councilors, including Councillor Fiona King.

We had the opportunity to promote our anti-plastic bag program, which we are working in partnership with Councillor King. About 20 boys from the Environment Club gave up their Saturday afternoon, to collect signatures on a petition to replace plastic bags with biodegradable bags. The boys collected over 400 signatures. Some boys volunteered to work four hours straight. Congratulations boys. Your efforts were outstanding.

KIDS TEACHING KIDS CONFERENCE

A select group of Club members will be attending the “2011 Queensland Australia Post Kids Teaching Kids Coastal Conference” in Caloundra on the 11th and 12th of August.

The boys will be presenting a workshop to other students attending the conference. We have been very fortunate to be the recipient of a travel grant ($2000) from Veolia Transport. We would like to publicly thank Veolia for giving us the grant. It will most definitely help us to attend the conference.

The boys are feeling very excited about this opportunity.

5 mental health habits to promote in kids
Kids who are mentally healthy are equipped to handle many of life’s curve balls that come their way. They also don’t let their emotions overwhelm them. As a result, they learn better and have more friends as well.

It seems strange to talk about promoting good mental health in children.

Shouldn’t all children naturally have good mental health habits? After all, childhood is supposed to be a pretty relaxed time of life, free from the pressures and stresses that can come with adulthood.

Sadly, it doesn’t seem that way. According to the Australian Psychological Society one in seven Australian children experience some type of mental health issue, with ADHD, anxiety and depression being the most common kind.

Having good mental health doesn’t mean that kids don’t experience difficulties or worries. Feeling worried, sad or tearful is normal. Kids who are mentally healthy are equipped to handle many of life’s curve balls that come their way. They also don’t let their emotions overwhelm them. As a result, they learn better and have more friends as well.

As a parent it’s useful to reflect on the mental health habits that you promote in your kids. Here are five basic mental health habits that you can consider right now:

1. Sleep: Sleep is the one of the building blocks of mental health and well-being. Many children and just about all teenagers are sleep-deprived at the moment. Many parents are sleep-deprived as well!!!! Children need between 10 and 12 hours sleep to enable proper growth and development, while teenagers need a minimum of nine hours. One of the single, most powerful strategies to improve kids’ ability to cope with stressful or changing situations is to ensure they get enough sleep.

2. Exercise: When my mum told me all those years ago to turn the television off and go outside and play she didn’t know that she was promoting good mental health. She just knew that physical activity was a good thing for an active, growing boy. Kids today get less exercise than those of past generations, which is an impediment to mental health. Exercise stimulates the chemicals that improve mood and release the stress that builds up over a day. An hour’s movement per day seems the minimum for kids. How much exercise does your child receive?

3. Help others: Social isolation is a huge predictor of poor mental health. Encourage your child to be connected to others and to help others in any way possible. Helping others reinforces social connectedness and the importance of being part of a community, as well as providing opportunities for positive recognition.

4. Talk: A problem shared is a problem halved! Talking about what’s worrying you is a great way to remove the burden of worry and reduce anxiety. Some kids bottle up what’s inside, while others will catastrophise a situation, which can make matters seem worse. If your child or young person has a problem let him know that his concerns are important to you. Kids often can’t tell you what may be wrong, so be observant and gently ask questions to help you get a clearer picture of how they may be feeling.

5. Relaxation: Make sure your child or young person has a hobby or activity that relaxes them. The ability to relax and get away from the stresses of everyday life is essential. Some children who have real difficulty switching-off may benefit from practising meditation or mindfulness, but most kids just need to have the time to chill out, and they’ll relax quite naturally.

These five habits are basic common sense. However, as kids’ lives get busier these essentials get squeezed out. Here’s my recommendation to ensure that mental health habits don’t get overlooked or neglected.

First, see these habits as the building blocks of mental health. Don’t ignore them or trivialise them. Talk to your children and tie these activities to their mental health but do so in your own way and in your own timeframe.

Second, assess which of these five essential habits need your attention and make some adjustments over time to push the pendulum back, if necessary, in favour of your child’s mental health.
Tips for When There is Serious Illness in the Family

When a family member is diagnosed with a serious illness, children may find it difficult to deal with all the necessary changes in the family. Some experience feelings of anxiety and sadness, yet many are reluctant to share their worries with parents. Parents often struggle with how to talk to their children and how to help them cope. The following tips provide an overview of some common concerns:

- Children want and need to know what’s going on but seldom ask questions.
- Talk to your children and keep them up to date on what is going on. Provide factual information in language that is appropriate for their age because knowing they can trust you to keep them informed helps them relax and let go of worry.
- If illness or trauma is expected to cause death, explain to the child that death is expected. Children usually understand more than adults may realize. Don’t be afraid to use the “D” words: die, dying, dead and death.
- Keep explanations simple and encourage children to come to you with questions at any time.
- Children will respond to how you present the information, so be matter-of-fact and as hopeful as possible.
- Reassure kids often. Emphasize the doctors are doing many things to help your loved one.
- Hug your children often.
- Laughter is truly the best medicine – everyone needs a daily dose!
- Hold family meetings to discuss changes in the family to allow kids to express their feelings and validate them.
- Encourage frequent visits to the hospital if the child is comfortable with this. Be sure to prepare the child in advance for what to expect.
- Listen to your children, to their needs, their hopes, and their disappointments. Help them put their feelings into words, and tell them it is good to talk about how they feel. (What they can talk out, they won’t have to act out). Be sure to separate your own emotions from your children’s.
- Protect pockets of normalcy in your family life whenever possible. This includes meals, special times together etc. These are important to kids.
- Expect children to regress in times of stress.
- Be consistent with enforcing rules – this helps kids of all ages feel more secure.
- Prepare kids for potential problems or emergencies.
- Encourage and model good coping through journaling, exercise, good nutrition and talking.

Finally: Above all, help your children to see the ways that all of you have found strength in the face of adversity (e.g. “We really appreciate one another more” and “Even though it’s been hard, we’re closer as a family”). Although you can’t protect them from all the difficulties they’ll encounter in life, you can help them grow through this experience by learning good coping skills that will benefit them for the rest of their lives.

The student counsellor is an avenue of support for your child and can provide assistance, as required.

2012 Football Tour to Malaysia

On Tuesday 7th of June, an information evening was held for interested parents and students to discuss the proposed football tour of Malaysia during the Easter break next year. We are happy to announce that with the level of commitment given on the night the tour is set to proceed in 2012. If you are not already involved and would like to be, please contact me asap – there’s still time to join the Malaysia 2012 tour.

The tour experience will not just be the 8-10 days in Malaysia but will also encompass the planning and organisation stages of the tour. Part of the planning will involve being part of the fundraising efforts to help reduce costs of the tour. This will teach the boys that if we all work hard towards our common goal we’ll all reap the rewards in the end.

These fundraising efforts started last Saturday at Banyo where many of the boys helped sell raffle tickets in four meat trays kindly donated by Rode Meats through the efforts of the Heskett family. Many thanks to Rode Meats for helping us kick start our road towards Malaysia 2012. Many thanks also to all those parents who helped out in the canteen on Saturday – it was one of the busiest days of the season – with much of the profits also contributing towards Malaysia 2012.

Each member of the touring squad have been asked to secure individual sponsors for the tour. We have set a target of $600 per player from a business that sponsors your son to tour. The business receives in return for their tax deductible sponsorship, a variety of advertising opportunities including business logos on tour playing & training strips. If you know of a business or would like to take up this unique opportunity please let me know.

Thanks for your support

Franciscan Lenten Project 2011

The great tradition of helping those in need continued at Padua College in 2011. For the past 20 years Padua College has raised over $382,000 for Lenten Projects - a magnificent effort!!

In 2006 Padua forged a special relationship with the St Francis of Assisi High School in Fatuberliu, Timor-Leste. The Franciscan run school was devastated by the Indonesian militia groups in September 1999. Our commitment is to stand in solidarity with our Timorese brothers and sisters and help rebuild their school and their community. This will, and already has, involved many opportunities including exchange programs and the development of lasting friendships.

Our response in 2011 was a contribution of $29,000 (our highest ever total!!) towards rebuilding the Timorese school. Congratulations must go to all members of the Paduan Community (Primary and Secondary) for their wonderful generosity.

Class Goals
The goal of each PC Class in the Secondary ($400) and each Class in the Primary ($500) was to provide all the equipment for one classroom at the St Francis of Assisi High School. In all, 27 PC Classes in the Secondary and 6 Primary Classes achieved this goal – well done! They are:

- Beirne: CF, MOS, HL, MT, PMcN, DM, RC
- Grigg: SP, MH, LW, COS, BS, Br MH, BSit.
- Mitchell: JOD, RB, RH, PM, MD, KB
- Odoric: AP, AG, DM, MR, DT, ND, GL
- Primary: 5DS, 5TC, 6PE, 6PW, 7LM, 7CW

The top fundraising Class for 2011: MT (Beirne) $2569 (the highest PC total ever!!)

Individual Fundraisers
Each and every student is to be congratulated for the effort they put in. Some students deserve special praise for outstanding fundraising efforts. They are as follows:

1st: Simon Gurney
2nd: Justin Burchard
3rd: Jake Andrew
4th: Lysander Bratby
5th: Charles Syvret

Simon Gurney’s total of $1700 is the highest individual total in 20 years of Lenten fundraising!!

Major Prizes
The 2 major prizes were drawn on the 9th June, and the winners are:

- Return flight to Sydney and Sydney Harbour Bridge climb: Donated by Harvey World Travel (Stafford City) and Bridge Climb Australia
  - Jacob Dryer
- Story Bridge Adventure Climb: Donated by Story Bridge Adv Climb
  - Sam Fenwick

Special Assistance
There are many people to thank for their valuable contribution to the running and organisation of the Franciscan Lenten Project – it could not happen without their help. Special thank you to:

- Thomas Dodds, Sharyn Biddle, Kathy Hodge
- Stephen Thrum, Office Staff, Simon Stower

your assistance was outstanding.

Thank You
Thank you to all the parents for your support and generosity, to all the teachers for your encouragement, dedication and good example, but especially, thank you to the students who have acted with kindness and compassion towards those in need. May we remember the words of William Penn when he said:

“I expect to pass through this life but once. If therefore, there is any kindness I can show, or any good thing I can do to another fellow human being, let me do it now, and not defer or neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again.”

Mark Taylor & Michael O’Brien
Thank you to all our sponsors for their generous donation of prizes in support of The Franciscan Lenten Project – it is most appreciated.

Old Boy News

The Old Boy's Weekend at Amaroo has been set as 7-9 October 2011.
My dear young people,

My greetings to you on this wonderful feast of Pentecost. Later this year I will be travelling with a group of young pilgrims as they journey through the Holy Land and then onto World Youth Day 2011 in Madrid, Spain. There we will join with young people from around the world in a celebration of faith, friendship and fun in the presence of Pope Benedict XVI. It has been my privilege to travel with young people to four World Youth Days over the past decade and I am convinced that the World Youth Days have an extraordinary capacity to change young people’s lives. Each World Youth Day is centred on a particular theme and I would like share with you briefly my reflections on this year’s theme “Planted and built up in Jesus Christ, firm in the faith” (cf Col 2:7).

Planted in Jesus Christ – Why am I here?

Throughout all of time, including today, many of us experience a deep desire to develop personal relationships built on authenticity and common values. We do not want to settle for an average life. We want something that is great, that is new. This desire, which is a gift from God, evokes deep questions in our hearts and minds at all stages of our life journey. At times we will ask ourselves: What meaning does my life have? What purpose and direction should I give to it?

Our identity is shaped through our parents, families, experiences, education, work, relationships, and the culture of our country. There will be times when we experience certainty that we are on the right path. These will be contrasted by times when we will try to recapture that certainty. Decisions that affect our lives require time and a great effort to discern. “Will I be able to live up to God’s call in my life?” “Do I believe enough?” When we enter into a personal relationship with Jesus Christ, Christ makes known our true uniqueness. Jesus, “in the very revelation of the mystery of the Father and of his love, fully reveals humanity to itself and brings to light its very high calling” (Gaudium et Spes, 22). Having someone to journey with in faith, to talk about these deep questions and to share experiences, is vital if we are going to answer the question – Why am I here?

Built up in Jesus Christ – Who do I want to become?

Jesus Christ is the answer to all the questions evoked. Jesus Christ is “the way, the truth and the life” (Jn 14:6) and it is through Him that we can find the answer to our deep longings and the searching in our hearts. When we strengthen our faith in Jesus we have a reason for hope. We find the love that only God has for us. Living our lives as Jesus lived his, fulfils our desire for a new life and an adventure we can commit ourselves. At the core of what it means to be a Christian, at the very centre is the person of Jesus and what he has done for us in and through the drama of the Paschal Mystery of Easter which we have just celebrated. We firmly believe that Jesus Christ offered himself on the Cross in order to share with us his divine life and give us his love. Life, death and resurrection bring about forgiveness and life to the full with Jesus that begins now and continues into eternity.
What is required is a response of faith. We are invited to enter into a personal friendship with Jesus and to develop it in faith. How do we do this? When you want to build a friendship with someone you do this by spending time with them, getting to know them and their hopes and dreams for themselves and for you. We can get to know Jesus better by reading the Gospels and the Catechism of the Catholic Church. You can speak about your life, share your feelings and reveal yourself openly with Jesus in prayer. Friendship requires listening also. You may not hear Jesus’ voice in prayer but a word or phrase or image may come to you. It may be straight away or a few days later, through a conversation with a friend, a paragraph in a book, a line in a song, a feeling you notice or any number of ways. When you are open to listening, the response will show up. We also find support when those who are dear to us, share their experiences of faith, their moments of struggle and disappointment as well as their time of certainty and joy. Thank God for the faith you have received and do all you can to build up your friendship with Jesus. Spend time with him, trust in him and he will never betray you. Your friendship with Jesus will assist you to know – Who do I want to become?

Firm in the Faith – How do I make a difference?

Remember too that you are not alone. Through Baptism we become members of this great family the Church. This is the gift of being Catholic. We carry each other, support each other and we are fed and nourished through the celebration of the Eucharist. We become who we receive and so are able to be spiritual/emotional nourishment for each other and we are sent to go out and transform the world.

Those who have gone before us and many others today, are bringing about this transformation expressed through charity and love, by being peacemakers, working for justice and a more compassionate world. Jesus sends you out in order that the world may be a reflection of the civilisation of love. Through the gift of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost, the disciples were suddenly empowered to proclaim the gospel of the risen Christ. Through the Word and Sacraments, the Holy Spirit gives us the faith to believe and trust in Christ as our Saviour. Jesus has guaranteed that wherever we go and whatever we do, the Holy Spirit will be with us guiding us and giving us the courage and strength that we need. In his message for World Youth Day 2011, Pope Benedict XVI challenges young people, “...if you believe, and if you are able to live out your faith and bear witness to it every day, you will become a means of helping other young people like yourselves to find the meaning and joy of life, which is born of an encounter with Christ!”

Desire is a primary way that God leads people to discover who they are and what they are meant to do. An attraction to being a doctor, a farmer, a teacher, a priest or a religious, for example, helps us to discover our vocation. Discover what you desire in life. Our deepest desires, which lead us to become who we are, are God’s desires for us. Expressing what you desire for your life brings us into a closer relationship with God and will ensure you know - How do I make a difference?

My dear young friends, Jesus Christ is calling on you to devote your lives to witnessing to God’s love to all people, and in a special way to your contemporaries. The Church needs you to respond generously to this call to mission. Do not underestimate the incredible power you possess to do good. As I prepare for this year’s pilgrimage to World Youth Day, know that I am praying for you always.

God bless you all.

HOST FAMILIES REQUIRED for students of Kamakura Gakuen High
School, from Kanagawa,
JAPAN
attending
Padua College
July 24 – August 5, 2011

This is a worthwhile opportunity for your family to learn about Japanese culture, while sharing with your Japanese student the lifestyle of an Australian family.

- Families are asked to provide all meals and a friendly home for their student
- They will travel to and from school each day the same way as arranged for your own children
- Payment to host families will be $230/week to assist with some of the expenses involved when hosting your student

Yes, I would like to host a Japanese student, but...

Will the student speak any English?
Yes. However, as their English skills may be limited, we would ask that you speak clearly and slowly (but not in a patronising way) when communicating with them.

Will I have to cook Japanese food for the student?
No. Your Japanese student is here to experience an Australian lifestyle. This includes spending mealtimes with your family, and eating what you and your family normally eat.

Is it OK if the parent/s work fulltime?
Yes. During these times (e.g. after school), your Japanese student can spend time with your own children. Families who live near each other are encouraged to share transport, or other activities outside of school.

Do we need Blue Cards?
Yes. It is necessary for families hosting overseas students for more than 10 days to have a current Blue Card.

If you would like to host a Japanese student this year, please contact:
Aimee Asimus at College to obtain a Host Family Application Form.
