Dear Parents

It has been some time since the last Bulletin. Over this period, there have been a number of important events. The Year 12 students have had a very successful Formal and they are currently completing their QCS Tests. I was privileged to watch a variety of FCIP Bands perform at the EKKA. As usual, they performed very well. The Year 5-12 Track and Field Day at Banyo was a very enjoyable whole school event. Mr Dobson has been appropriately farewelled and thanked for his time as Vice Rector Primary. We have all enjoyed the Padua Ekka Break. The Primary choir won gold at the Catholic Colleges Music Festival. Year 6 have had a very enjoyable and successful camp. Finally 7C CIC Basketball team won their game last Friday 117-1 (must be some sort of record!). Clearly, a lot has happened and I must thank the staff for the extra time and effort that they have given to these special events on top of their consistently good effort in the classroom.

Just this week, I was informed of the recent success of another Padua Old Boy, Jeremy Baldwin (2006 Senior). Jeremy has been awarded the 2011 Student Leader of the Year at QUT. He is a graduate of a Bachelor of Applied Science and Bachelor of Business degree. The QUT LINKS (11 August) Alumni News states that;

“Jeremy is currently undertaking Honours in the Cancer Research Program. He is an exceptionally committed student whose leadership and ambition show through in his studies and community contributions. Last year he won a QUT International Engagement grant to complete a short-term research project in Ecuador”.

The topic of leadership is coming into sharp focus over the coming weeks. The Year 6 classes began their leadership selection processes with the camps last week. The Year 11 students will continue their reflection on leadership at the camps over the next two weeks. Student leadership positions for 2012 will be announced next Term.

The most recent news is that the First XI Football team failed valiantly to win the UHL SPORT CUP on Wednesday evening. They went down to John Paul College 2-1 after leading 1-0 in the first half. Though disappointed about the loss, the boys deserve every applause for being the first Padua team to make the final in the Cup's thirteen year history. Well done to Mr Cull, Luke Richmond (Captain) and Cameron Miller (Player of the Final).

With only two weeks remaining of the term, exams and assessment are a high priority. I wish all the students well for this important time.

Pace e bene

From the Chaplain

Naturally the riots in Britain have caused much comment. Here is a little more! For over forty years I have been associated with young people in a teaching and ministering capacity as a Franciscan friar. In those years I have dealt with the minor peccadillos of adolescent boys, and the question I sometimes ponder is “not why some boys misbehave, but why don’t we all misbehave?”

What did cause thousands of mainly young males to burn down buildings, loot local shops, and attack their fellow-citizens? Then why was it that so many did not riot. The answer lies in external and internal constraints.

Let’s look at internal constraints- these are the product of early socialisation, where we learn the basic norms and values of our society.

This process begins at birth, so that by the time we reach adolescence, the basic notions of right and wrong should be deeply ingrained and almost instinctive. The key agencies of socialisation are family and school- and recent trends in both should cause us some concern.

In some schools there has been a revolt against structure. Gone are the rows of desks facing the front, gone is the concern for spelling rules, the rote learning of arithmetic tables, the laborious phonic reciting of the alphabet. Teachers dressed as if for a beach where the emphasis is on student self-esteem, child-centred learning, which means students’ desires are paramount- and please call me “Jason”.

And there are no real serious consequences visited upon school children who ignore school rules.

Now those young people fortunate enough to be raised by committed parents may come out of this type of school system relatively unscathed. But others grow up with little family structure. At Padua the boys here are fortunate to experience sound school structure and strong and firm family environments.

Fr John

From the Pastoral Care Team

Glenn Manton
Prior to the Exhibition break, the students from across all the year levels of the College were fortunate enough to hear a presentation from Mr Glenn Manton. Glenn is a former AFL player (200 Games for Carlton), NSL Soccer Player (South Melbourne FC) and Winter Olympian (Bobsleigh Team) who has recently turned his hand to acting, comedy work (Melbourne Comedy Festival 2010) and motivational speaking.

Glenn was able to portray the importance of understanding and being comfortable with who we are and how best to use our individual strengths to be the best we can be. The presentation was highly informative, inspirational and very entertaining. An event definitely worth discussing with your sons!

Exam Conditions
With the forthcoming Year 12 exam block about to begin and the Year 11 exam block currently in process, I would like to take this opportunity to remind families about the obligations that your son must meet in order to receive this privilege.

During their recognised exam block, it is expected that all students should:

- Arrive to the College at least 20 minutes before the scheduled start time of their exam.
- Present to their exam room 10 minutes before the start of the exam.
- Meet all uniform and grooming expectations outlined in the College diary (Including Hats).
- If not in an exam whilst on site, remain at Lone Pine or in the library studying.

Whilst transiting to and from school during exam block, it is also expected that students will not loiter at local shops, Chermside Westfield or local parks. All transit should be directly between home and school. Students should not be working during normal school hours (designated for study), unless they have a pre-arranged College sanctioned work placement.

It would be appreciated if you could please discuss and reinforce these expectations with your son’s as students who fail to comply with these expectations may have their exam block privileges revoked.

Term Three is often the busiest term of the year on the Western Campus and this year has proved to be no exception. Special events in curriculum are occurring for almost all secondary year levels this Term, many of them concentrated into the last weeks of the term.

Year 12 QCS Tests

This week 112 of the Year 12 boys sat completed the QCS Test in La Cordelle, completing four test papers over two days. All the students responded very well to the demands of this very important test and demonstrated exemplary test-taking behaviours.

It is worth noting that this year 15 of the boys who sat for the QCS Test are not OP-eligible. They are on ‘Mixed Pathways’ or the ‘Industrial Pathway’ for their senior studies. This high number of non-OP students taking the QCS Test reflects the changes that have been occurring at Padua in students’ choices of senior Pathways and courses and the use of the QTAC Tertiary Selection Ranks as an alternative to the OP for some students. These boys, in particular, can be very proud of the commitment they showed to continue their preparation for the Test and complete it with the OP-eligible students, for whom the Test was compulsory.

Thank you:

On behalf of the seniors I would like to thank all the staff who supported the Year 12s in their preparation for the QCS Test, including the teachers of Year 12 PALS classes who conducted QCS workshops throughout the year and the subject teachers who have taught the boys all their academic skills and test-taking skills over all their years at Padua. We would also like to thank the Tuckshop staff and Mr Michael O’Brien who prepared and served the beautiful hot breakfasts the boys enjoyed on Tuesday and Wednesday morning before the Tests, as well as Mr Justin Duncliff the Grounds Staff who set up the Hall and surrounding areas to serve as the Test Centre for the two days.

A big congratulations and thank you also goes to Mr Jon O’Driscoll who took on the very demanding role of Chief Supervisor again this year, and fulfilled all those duties admirably.

Junior subject selections – Years 8 and 9:

Next week the Year 8 students and their families will be attending the Information Evening on Tuesday 6 September, prior to making their first decisions about subjects for Year 9.

This is an exciting stage in the education journey of these young Paduans and we wish them well for their first experience of choosing some of their own subjects.

Year 9 students will soon receive a form from Mr Stower requesting their choices of Elective Subjects for next year. Deadlines for the return of the forms will be set then.
Year 10 Decision Making

The Year 10 students are continuing their preparation for their SET Plans which will be due soon. The Year 10 classes are working with Mrs Goodwin and their PALS teachers to make their decisions about their Senior Pathways and course for next year. They will receive their final information and Application Forms within the next week.

All junior secondary students will be required to submit their preferences for their subjects for next year immediately after the September holidays. All parents will be notified when forms are distributed and due dates set.

Assessment and Reports:

During these final weeks of the term students in all year levels on the Western Campus are engaged in assessment tasks, including oral presentations, assignments, projects and tests for all of their subjects. It is very important that all students are at school and in attendance for all of these assessment events.

Term Three Assessments are particularly important for the Year 12 boys and we ask your prayers for their success in these tasks, especially during their Exam Period beginning next Tuesday.

Reports for all students in Years 8 to 12 will be posted during the September holidays.

Ecoman

Two weeks ago, I was privileged enough to be one of three Year 11 Economics students selected to attend an “Ecoman” program run by the Queensland Private Enterprise Centre and the Queensland Economics Teachers Association, hosted in the Queensland Institute of Company Directors boardroom in Brisbane city.

The aim of the program was to bridge the gap between business and education. This involved us in completing a variety of tasks to further our understanding of the fundamentals of business in the real world. We were then able to see the fruit of our work as we divided into our groups and ran our respective companies. By entering our decisions into the “Ecoman” computer program we were able to see the effects of these decisions on the performance of our companies.

On the final day of the program we presented our results to the “Shareholders” at our Companies’ Annual General Meeting.

The skills gained through participation in this program were invaluable and I would like to thank the school and Mr O’Rourke for the opportunity to participate in such a program.

Alexander McManus (Yr 11)
Exciting news from the Eastern Campus involves the Padua Middle School ensemble who performed at the QLD CATHOLIC MUSIC FESTIVAL over the 19th - 21st of August. (Ekka break)

Junior, Middle and Senior Catholic schools and colleges from all over Brisbane and South East Qld competed in the competition held at Villanova College.

The boys have been attending rehearsals every week on Tuesday afternoons, and in preparation, also put in extra weekend rehearsals and their hard work paid off!

Padua middle school vocal ensemble was awarded GOLD and was the ONLY choir in their section to be given a gold award which is outstanding. Even with seven singers, their sound in the church rivaled that of the 40+ voice choirs that sang on the day.

Their success as a group has landed the boys an invitation to record session vocals in an independent release heavy metal album next month and will be recorded in a professional recording studio in September. The boys to be congratulated are:

CAPTAIN, Gerard Wilkie
Kane Wilson
Braydon Caughey
Finn Hestehauge
George Hennessay
Connor Maguire
Declan O’Donnell

It would be fantastic to see more boys join this wonderful group as there are definitely talented singing voices in the Primary who could take advantage of this incredible opportunity.

Congratulations boys and a big thank you to Mrs Connolly-Coates for her guidance and enthusiasm.
Eleven boys from the Environment Club attended the 2011 Australia Post Kids Teaching Kids Environment Conference in Caloundra, 11th and 12th of August. This was our first time attending the conference. The boys who represented our school were: Louis De Pasquale, Lachlan Caldwell, Nathan Contarini, Riley Brazel, Jake Brazel, Patrick Grohovaz, Connor Smith, Lachlan Gill, Will Egan, Riley Clarke and Jack Hyland.

The boys were joined by over 300 other school students from non-government and government schools from South-East Queensland. The two day conference included guest speakers, workshops presented by school students, a gala dinner and a day participating in environmental activities at various Sunshine Coast sites.

We were invited to present a workshop at the conference to small groups of 30 students. The boys delivered their workshop to two different groups, where they promoted our anti-plastic bag program through a drama skit, powerpoint presentation, quiz and problem solving scenarios.

I was very proud of the boys and I received numerous positive comments from many teachers and conference staff who had attended our workshops. Their performance in the workshops was absolutely amazing. It was definitely a very rewarding and valuable experience for them.

Finally, special thanks to Veolia Water who gave us a grant of $2000 to attend the conference.

TAFE and SkillsTech 2012
Applications for these courses need to be returned to me before 15th September.
The offerings for both TAFE and SkillsTech are on Sharepoint under Voc Ed.

I have spoken to the Year 10’s about these courses and many boys have taken New Student application forms. Please ensure that both sides of the form are completed.
Students who fail to meet the deadline will probably not be offered a place in a course in 2012.

These courses will take up one day of study per week in 2012.

The Book Week theme for 2011, One World, Many Stories was celebrated in the secondary library in a number of ways. The display was put together by library staff, Sandra Healy and Debbie Martin, celebrating all the stories from all the different parts of the world. Instead of having a book week presenter, I acted as a guest speaker, talking to the Year 5s, 6s and 7s of St Anthony, as well as the Year 6s from Padua Primary about my role as the Qld Judge of the CBCA Awards. I hope it gave them an insight into the process, which has been fulfilling, both personally and professionally.

We look forward to Book Week 2012, when we proclaim, ‘Champions Read!’

Learn Cognitive Behavioural Therapy skills for preventing and coping with depression

Depression affects one in five Australians at some point in their life, and about 121 million people worldwide. Although immunisation and other preventative measures are widespread in many areas of medicine, there is little recognition for the need of protecting mental health.

With this in mind, MoodGYM was developed as a training program to help prevent depression in young people. Making it available over the Internet seemed to be the most practical way of reaching the broader community.

Since its launch in 2004, MoodGYM has received several IT and health awards, and has over 400,000 registered users worldwide.

What is MoodGYM?

MoodGYM is an innovative, interactive web program designed to prevent depression. It consists of five modules, an interactive game, anxiety and depression assessments, downloadable relaxation audio, a workbook and feedback assessment.

Using flash diagrams and online exercises, MoodGYM teaches the principles of cognitive behaviour therapy – a proven treatment for depression. It also demonstrates the relationship between thoughts and emotions, and works through dealing with stress and relationship break-ups, as well as teaching relaxation and meditation techniques.

Who is behind MoodGYM?

MoodGYM was designed and developed by staff at the Centre for Mental Health Research at the Australian National University, in collaboration with other researchers, mental health experts, web and graphic designers, and software engineers.

Will MoodGYM help me?

There is evidence that MoodGYM is helpful for its users. Scientific trials evaluating MoodGYM have shown that the using two or more modules is linked to significant reductions in depression and anxiety symptoms. The trials also found that these benefits still last after 12 months.

Although MoodGYM may reduce depression in some people, the Centre for Mental Health Research and its staff make no claims that MoodGYM will be helpful for every individual.
Do you know, love or care for someone experiencing depression?

Did you know those who love, care for or support people with depression can experience significant stress and are themselves at greater risk of developing mental health problems?

Would you be interested in finding out more about a program shown to be effective in supporting the partners, family members and friends of people with depression?

Partners in Depression is a FREE six week group program that aims to address the information and support needs of those who live with or love someone experiencing depression.

The program covers a range of topics including:
- What is depression
- Treatments for depression
- Suicidality and self harm
- How do you best support someone with depression
- Communication strategies

The program is run by health professionals and provides a forum in which to receive information and ask questions about depression and your support role, with others with similar experiences.

From the P & F

At the P&F meeting held on 9th August, we were fortunate to have Joe Higgins, a Year 10 student, as our guest speaker. Joe gave an excellent insight into the 2010 Franciscan Pilgrimage, of which he was a member. With the use of a power point presentation and confident speaking he explained his adventure from start to end. After listening to Joe I know next year’s pilgrimage will have a wonderful time.

On a side note, it was nice to see an example of the confident and compassionate young men being developed by the Padua Ethos.

Many thanks Joe for the informative presentation.

Also discussed:
- Women of Padua College social event, High Tea & Fashion Parade, on October 8th. Tickets will be on sale soon, supporting the Rugby Tour to Ireland in 2012.
- Artscape, will be on October 23rd coinciding with the Kedron Street festival. There will be an opening night on October 22nd. The committee is extremely organised and busily finalising details for the event.
- P&F expenditure, assisting with projects relating to La Cordelle

Full details on these and all items discussed can be found in the minutes.

There was a unanimous decision that the P&F make a presentation to Phillip Dobson in appreciation of all the hard work and dedication that he has put in to both running the Eastern Campus over many years and the college in general. Being blessed with great parents, Mary Shields put her hand up to organise the gift. With the help of Jane Higgins and Michael Bell, they did a great job in such a short time. The gift was presented to Phillip at a gathering on the Eastern campus, Monday 15th. Many thanks to Mary, Jane & Michael.

I would like to remind all the next P&F meeting, to be held on Tuesday 13th September at 7:30pm in the staff room, located in St Francis Hall, will have a presentation from the team that recently returned from America where they competed in the ISSDC and placed second. This should be a great recount of the successful trip.

Future P&F date claimers:
13 September – Presentation from the team that competed in the ISSDC.
11 October – General meeting
8 November - AGM

Don’t miss these wonderful opportunities, supper will be provided afterwards.
