Dear Parents

The notion of ‘leadership’ is bandied around in the media in all sorts of circumstances, from our politicians to our sporting stars. Rarely is a definition attached to the notion and quite often it means different things to different people in different circumstances. A definition of leadership that I share with Year 11 students includes the following sentences,

‘The most precious and intangible quality of leadership is trust—the confidence that the one who leads will act in the best interests of those who follow—the assurance that he or she will serve the group without sacrificing the rights of the individual...In the highest sense, leadership is integrity.’

The Year 11 students, who have the opportunity to test themselves against this definition of leadership in 2014 are as follows;

2014 Student Leaders

College Captain          Rowan Herklots
College Vice Captain      James Weston
Beirne Leader            Edward Hess
Beirne Leader            Jack Taylor
Boyd-Boland Leader       Thomas Fitzgerald
Boyd-Boland Leader       Charles Syvret
I congratulate all of these young men for what they have done so far to put themselves in these positions and I wish them well in earning the accolade of LEADER during 2014.

On Tuesday, the Assisi campus went to QSAC to cheer on our AIC Track and Field team in the AIC Championships. It was a closely contested event with positions three to five decided in the last relay race. Padua came a very creditable fourth. Congratulations to the whole team on a superb effort and congratulations to all the coaches and Mr Justin Carroll, the Track and Field Coordinator.

Already, we have celebrated a number of end-of-year events this term. My thanks to all the Parent Volunteers for their wonderful support of the College in 2013. The ‘Thank You’ function last Friday night was a fitting way to acknowledge the efforts of so many. Thank you also the P&F Management Committee for organizing the evening.
On Wednesday night, the last House Eucharist was celebrated of 2013. Although it was the last, it was the first Boyd-Boland House Eucharist. Congratulations to Mr Lavey and most importantly Fr John on a great celebration for the House.

There are more events in the coming weeks. Please check the calendar for the details. Best wishes for the coming fortnight.

Pace e bene
Robert Out
Rector
Last Wednesday at the College Assembly, Mr Justin Carroll, our Director of Coaching, spoke forcibly to the boys about the phenomenon of "Gen Y". A way of life that screams it's "all about ME", where self-sacrifice and commitment are to be well avoided.

I wondered in listening to this, if this way of thinking doesn't have its origins in the lopsided emphasis on self-esteem, self-regard, self-importance. Where did we get the idea that it would be a good idea for young people to take themselves so seriously, to believe everything they do is so wonderful, and never a word of criticism or correction to be heard? "Brilliant", we cry, at the drop of a hat, "gold stars all around!!"

Self-esteem is the simpering twin of happiness. They are seductive but vacuous distractions that sap our motivation, our courage, and our peace of mind. "I want them to be happy," we say, as if we believe perpetual happiness is not just a worthwhile goal but the birthright of every child. Another symptom of the disease: "I want to give them everything I never had." Really? Does that also mean denying them the precious formative experience of disappointment, deprivation and failure?

Of course children need to know they are loved, appreciated and acknowledged. But ancient wisdom, as well as personal experience, teaches us that happiness is a kind of euphoria - pleasant in short bursts, but hardly a rich enough resource to sustain us through life's vicissitudes.

Our politicians, pop stars and assorted celebrities take great care to let us know of their humble beginnings, and the obstacles they had to overcome in growing up - who of them want to admit that success was handed to them on a plate?

Over hyped self-esteem can slip very easily into vanity, arrogance, and triumphalism. Whereas, self-respect is our personal, private reward for living in ways that are true to our noblest and loftiest ideals - especially when this involves our unconditional service to others.
Drug-induced euphoria won’t build your self-respect, though it might do wonders for your short-term self-esteem. Ditto retail therapy, Casual sex, over-indulgence in food and booze. Self-respect is fundamentally linked to the hard slog and the long haul. It is not glamorous and it is not glitzy, it is not the stuff of Facebook.

This is the secret we need to let our children into: there are no short cuts, emotional or moral to self-respect, whereas self-esteem is a short cut, an illusion and a game.

House Eucharists

This Wednesday night saw the last of our six House Eucharists for the year. As you have heard from me many times, these liturgies are significant occasions during the year and that is why we make such a fuss about them. The attendance at each of them has been fantastic, showing the great support for the House system by the Paduan community. I am very appreciative of the support given to me by the House Guardians. One of their chief roles is the spiritual guidance of their Houses. The Liturgy Group have, once again, provided excellent leadership in music and singing this year. For the first time a large number of boys from the Greccio Campus have been involved. I thank Ms Rigby, Mr Sitarz and Ms Meacham in their guidance of the Liturgy Group. And lastly, a huge thanks to Fr John. He is a great man of faith and inspiration to all of us. We are grateful to him for his ministry to us.

Franciscan Schools Social Justice Day

Last Tuesday the five Franciscan schools of the greater Brisbane/Gold Coast area came together for a day of discussion and activity. The schools involved were St Francis College, Crestmead; Assisi College, Upper Coomera; Marymount College, Burleigh, Mt Alvernia College and Padua College, Kedron. The theme for discussion focused on refugees and asylum seekers. Students met and heard stories from people who had fled their countries and found new homes in Australia. The day was concluded by a visit to Mu’ooz Eritrean Restaurant at Moorooka. This restaurant is run by refugee women from Africa, who work together to support themselves and their families. It was a wonderful day of Franciscan hospitality and friendship. We are indebted to the Franciscan Provincial Justice, Peace and Integrity of Creation (JPIC) Committee who gave material and financial support to the day.

Red Cross Blood Van

Padua’s community never ceases to amaze me in its generosity. Our Blood Donation Outreach keeps getting bigger all the time. I have over 60 boys who have returned their Consent Forms and more are still coming in! Notwithstanding the current issues with having no Donor Van available I am looking at a plan to transport the boys to the Chermside Donor Centre to donate. This activity would be spread over a week or so. I will need parents to give permission for the boys to leave the school grounds for this as well. More details will be given to you in the future.

Islamic College of Brisbane (ICB) Student Visit

After a cancellation of their planned visit last week, a group of Year 11 students from Brisbane’s only Islamic School will be at Padua this Thursday. Their visit will be complement an earlier trip to their school by our Year 12 SOR students. Both girls and boys will join us for a morning of communal prayer, discussion, networking and interaction. The ICB girls will meet with girls from Mt Alvernia while the boys will enjoy a morning with our Year 11 boys. These events have become quite important to our two schools over these last couple of years. Meetings such as these dispel commonly held ignorances, as well as help build new friendships based on mutual respect and fraternity.
From the Vice Rector Formation

Franciscan Week 2013
Another successful Franciscan Week was enjoyed by all at Padua after our return from holidays. There were many events planned with the highlight being the celebration of the Eucharist for the Feast of St Francis. This week is an important one for us as we take the time to reflect upon our Franciscan heritage. Next year I will be in Assisi with our group of pilgrims from Padua. A great place to be for the Feast!

Pilgrimage Fundraiser
Tickets for $10 are on sale for a visit to the Estee Lauder Warehouse at Milton on Saturday 26 October. This is a great way to begin your Christmas shopping at greatly discounted prices! Your ticket purchase assists the boys going on next year’s Franciscan Pilgrimage in 2014. Call Sharyn Biddle on 3857 9907 to purchase and reserve your tickets for a great morning of fun!

October Rosary
Each day after morning tea a different Year Level gathers around the Marian Shrine near the Little Flower Church for a decade of the rosary. Praying the rosary was a practice much loved by St Francis, who had a great devotion to Our Lady. So far, every Year has participated and we are now on a second round. I congratulate the boys on the way they have entered into the spirit of this activity.

Peace and all Good everyone!

From the Pastoral Care Team

Pastoral Care Reports
Last week Pastoral Care reports were sent home to all students of the College. The report was a summary of a student’s Pastoral involvement and application to College life. The Pastoral Care report also contained each student’s current Pastoral Level.

The Pastoral Levels are designed to reflect sustained and consistent behaviour. Positive progression through the levels requires a student to maintain their application and commitment to College life throughout the year. As a result, the Pastoral Levels are cumulative of all behaviour and a student’s Pastoral Level may be at its highest in the later months of 2013.

While for some students it may appear that their son’s level is slightly below where he should be tracking in relation to his current year level, parents should be assured that if their son has earned a higher Pastoral Level, it will be reflected on the Term 4 report card.

AIC Athletics
This week, the entire school attended the AIC Athletics Championships at QSAC as supporters of the College athletics team. A practice now implemented by most AIC schools. The day was a fantastic celebration of school spirit and pride and every student present on the day should be congratulated on their enthusiasm and effort.

Further congratulations should go to the very impressive 4th place achieved by the Athletics Team.

Year 9 Camp
Best of luck to all of the Year 9 students attending camp in the coming weeks. A reminder to all families that the Outdoor Education Program is a compulsory element of the College calendar. All students are expected to attend. In addition, all boys need to be present at school at school by 8am on their day of departure to ensure they are ready to leave at 8.30am.

Concluding 2013
Over the next few months, the school year will come to a conclusion. I would like to remind all students and families that College expectations regarding student attendance, behaviour and appearance has not relaxed. Students are expected to ensure their behaviour and appearance is to be of the highest standard at all times. Parents of students who cannot meet these expectations will be contacted by their House Guardian to ensure any behaviour or grooming issues are rectified.

College Dance

Last Friday night the College hosted its only Open Dance for 2013. Held at the Brisbane Table Tennis Association, the dance attracted a large crowd and was enjoyed by all.

WE LOVE OUR VOLUNTEERS
The EDGE is on! For students age 10-13. EDGE is a Catholic Youth Ministry program run through the Kedron Catholic Parish.

Date: 20 October * 3.30pm - 5.30pm * Parish Hall

Program Topic: Needs and Wants: Greed and Materialism

The goal of this Edge Night is to help the youth keep in perspective the things they want and desire in life. If they can recognize the difference between wanting and needing something, they can avoid falling into traps of greed and getting caught up in the materialism of the world.

The EDGE is a program held once a month which is based on Franciscan values and is aimed at youth who are interested in developing their faith in a friendly social atmosphere outside of the school setting.

Free afternoon of faith based activities run in the spirit of fun, friendship; assisting youth to deal with the world they encounter.

Register for the EDGE program by e-mailing Julia Bell at julibell26@hotmail.com with the following details: Child’s name, parent’s name and contact details and any allergies your child may have, or contact the Parish Office on 3357 6640
If you promised yourself that you would attend one P&F meeting this year, then the AGM on the 12th November will be your last chance.

All positions will be open for election. Whilst a number of current members have expressed interest of volunteering again in 2014, there are a number of positions looking for new volunteers.

One position looking for a new volunteer will be the Vice President role. This position will coordinate the new community and hospitality sub committee in 2014 for both Greccio and Assisi campuses.

If you have some spare time and would like to be part of the P&F or the new sub committee on P&F in 2014, you will be welcomed. If you would like a nomination form or have any questions regarding nominating for a position, I would be happy to discuss and can be contacted on acaughey@bigpond.net.au.

Last Friday evening the ‘Thank You dinner for volunteers’ was well supported and reports indicate all had a great time. I would like to thank all who have contributed to supporting their son through volunteering at Padua College.

Date Claimer

12 November 2013 - AGM with a guest speaker from Q-psych

Hope to see you there.

Karen Caughey

P & F President
Dear Parents,

We are on the Padua P&F Association committee for 2013 as the Pastoral Care Parents or we like to think, Community Care Parent. Our aim with the P & F is to bring families together to “enhance the Franciscan values of hospitality and welcome”.

Parent Pastoral Care House Committee 2014

On the 12 November, the P&F will hold their AGM. We are keen to set up a parent representative for each House (Years 7 -12). These parents will coordinate the House Eucharist’s supper and collate contact sheets for volunteers. Each would then also assist coordinating volunteers within the pastoral care team with such things are providing meals.

We thank those parents who have returned the ‘Family Response Sheet’ in 2013. In 2014, join your House Contact list by completing the attached sheet and return to the office or via email admin@padua.qld.edu.au

In addition, we would appreciate it if you can indicate on this form ways your family can contribute or suggestions for how to help in the Padua Community.

House Eucharists

Thank you to all the volunteers and Trish Watkins who helped at the Odoric and Boyd-Boland House Eucharists.

Thank-you for your support,

P&F Market Day
Friday 15th November

Dear Families,

St Anthony's P&F would like to extend an invitation to Families and Friends of the School Community to put forward their expression of interest in participating in a "Market Day".

We know that there are a large number of Families and Friends within our Community that operate their own small businesses, with a diverse range of products and services. While we appreciate that these people have the opportunity to promote their business through the TOTF directory, we decided to offer the "Market Day" as a way of responding to a number of requests we have received throughout the year from interested parents.

The "Market Day" will be held in the School Hall, and business owners/operators will be able to have a stall to sell and/or promote their business. This event will be held on:

Friday, 15th November 8am – 1pm
(set-up on Thursday night or from 7:30am on Friday morning)

We would like to encourage a wide range of businesses, and invite people to put forward an expression of interest to let us know if you would be interested in participating in this event.

Please return the slip below to the School by 18th October.

Once we determine the level of commitment to this event, we will make a final decision on whether we proceed and will communicate this to all interested parties. If we receive enough support for the "Market Day", promotional flyers will be prepared and distributed through the TOTF School Communities and the Kedron Parish.

If you have any questions, please contact Jo Galvin on 0429303043.
